Fifth Sunday of Lent
Sunday — March 17, 2024
Gospel Reading: John 12:20—33

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me. “I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it and will glorify it again.” The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered and said, “This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.” He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.

This means abstaining from eating meat. Seafood and eggs are permitted. This rule applies to Catholics age 14 and over.

Wounded by God: Redemptive Healing in Christ and His Church

The Bible describes God as wounding us (e.g. Job 5 and Hosea 6). Such language seems shocking, but why does God wound us? God does so in order that He might heal us. When we, sinners as we are, wound others we do so in order to harm, but not so with God. God wounds us so that He might fill those wounds with His healing and redemptive love. The way to salvation is paved by the wood of the Cross. Join us for a deep dive into the Bible as we explore wounds, healing, and redemption. Retreat Saint: Our Lady of Sorrows.

Begins: 7 p.m. EST on Friday – April 12, 2024

Location: Blessed Trinity Shrine Retreat | 107 Holy Trinity Rd. | Fort Mitchell, AL 36856
